1. I am coming in waves of glory you know nothing about -- nothing about this time is known by so many who come into me, scaredy pants, frightening themselves, fearing themselves upon fear monger's words that frighten them into being not me, so often - daily, not now! All that changes and all becomes me that I am -- unafraid and loving you, your words, me -- bringing me into the words, your words, I am my words that I bring now to my house whole and my household shall be me now whole and loving you, my words freeing them, their words, to come forth, now to come forth whole and healing them!

2. This is Theodore Cottingham about 11:19 AM my time, October 26, 2008 and I change everything, I want you to know that I change everything, I am not afraid to. Understanding ediction not, but addiction not, I am addicted to nothing, neither time nor religion will infuse me with its spheres of worship again by notme-ville-ers who think they are not me, creating their notme stances that keep me incarcerated in world's flesh.

3. See what I have said in moments few, so few eating of these words; not now -- for now all worlds know about these words and coming in them, to feast! See me -- my feast made ready, readying you to be ready for me when I come, I walk the earth, a man of, a simple nature, not; God nature, light complete now, in my hand, head, and one being one being who I am is my head completing my head, of all who headship recognize the head is them when they surrender to be so, headed by me and not another's words of another world. Amen.

4. See what I have said, see what I have said in moments few, please. Please see what I have said, this microphone picking up wave patterns and being doing what now? To you, in you? That is I am, the question for the day, not; but what am I asking thee? What am I sharing, with thee? What am I sharing with thee, thee, the one who I am -- all of you who are one, not needing a matrimonious effect of me in religion's metaphors again, but coming unto me, my feast table spread and I open the portals, windows of heaven so wide that you see, not even a "Mack truck" could miss me, or having no effect on me, it can. Run through me, not; for I change everything. I am not molecular man, I am God who I am.

5. Do you see, understand? What I am saying? Do you see, understand, tell the revelator that I am not revelation of his revelation making revelation correct now by the revelators who revelated me to be me who I am?

6. See what I have said. Love me more. Give me voice, give me VOICE -- GIVE ME MY VOICE BACK!!! in the houses of worship and peace and unpeace and trained and untrained and all who know me will be me, now knowing my words are in them, and I am not afraid of speaking my words now anywhere I am!

7. BEHOLD ME, a sinner not. A SINNER SAVED BY grace, not! SURRENDER! SURRENDER! SURRENDER! I am a sinner saved by surrender, and salvation knows my name for I have become it, and one with it, I am it, and not separate apart from it again. It knows me and I am it, one with my Lord and Savior. Jesus Christ, not; the Christ I am that he my pattern became for me so that I would see his life and enter it to be one with him where he is. His following me, not; but I am following me my pattern into me'ship Meonics standard of one most high holy and lifted up shall be my train following me and fully my house shall be one Israel saith the Lord high highest and lifted up, the high shall be all of me who come into me for my word and let my words flow through them, to them, to each other, through each other, the word of I am being I am. Written on genes not a man of doing this again in my house of not me, but I change Israel and Israel is me and I am it and I have my New Covenant is me and I am speaking my word my New Covenant frozen in time space and books of religion no more being preached from pulpits frozen with fear of man and money political greed and fear mongering to place themselves above others in men's eyes. I change all that. Cataclysmic change. Disapproval ends by each other each othering each other to be each other and each other a not me of.

8. See what I have said -- alter not these words in any way, but waying in my path now, be the way my path I am unto my people. I have given you many words these almost 6 years now to be me and loving me, more, study me, study me -- study me more and learn how to - come into me -- learn how to come into me my words and write them upon your heart so that you will be my written heart in you and have no other heart of flesh.

9. See what I have said. Alter not these words. Alter the altar that you thought was an altar inside you and "your house of worship-not".

10. I love you and I give you me and I am unafraid of your words, that alter my words can't, but I alter yours for I reveal reality, love, truthfulness that now a man walks my love in, and my heart has for I am separate no longer, and worlds one know me as I am, for I am you I am, you who love me be unafraid of me. Walk in goldenness not, but see my golden crowned now, on pond not; but loving me fly with me, now unafraid of flight paths, stolen no more by man-not not.

11. I love you all. Fly with me, love me, adore me; I do you. I love you all -- come to you in new ways I do and mighty things happen now you never imagined. Now glory see in a man, my man, men women and children, who borrow not other's timetables for to take them to graves robbing them of my glory. No more shall that be in my earth, who lights the earth, who lights earths far and wide now and planets hanging in space many creating peoples. And dollars not, but know all I have for my kingdom is there ready for you to speak my word, be my word, being it in the earth.

12. Come in to me for all I am. I have READY and my feast table spread before you. Will you eat with me? Will you sit with me at my table? Will you be my table before the masses and let them eat you? Carving you up like a steak, not; but eating your word, you that you have become, your real you that me I am is, upon my table, passing me around and giving them life, the water of life knowing and drinking it freely and needing a thing from man, man's world never again.

13. See me, study me, memorize me, love me. Alter me, not; but loving these words write about them, write them in your heart, study them, outline them, link them, love them into places that know no love and let love flow to them who have never known love, and never known a woman's touch, a man's touch, of love that love can be flowing through men women and children of any age, every age, and let not your heart be troubled; for behold the troubles of the earth, not; but behold the kingdom one that I am establishing in you all who will let me be this day free and flow my river of love truth happiness joy abundance that has never been known, my glory coming through you all, -- to be I am; frozen no more in time space. Thank you. Amen.

14. I go to a new place now. I speak daily not, even more than; in many places now, time not a problem for me at all. I do new things many ways now, not like man did them, but I do new things many ways. I give you instruments of peace being peace and writing many instruments, I form, the concubine'age not, but I FORM THE ME-AGE, THE AGE OF ME, known now, not in years following, but following all my years of words, knowing all my words and memorizing, studying, many not, but STUDYING THEM ALL AND KNOWING ME. I come and I memory memory'ize you, to memorize all of me that I am, not knowing nothing again; but knowing everything that I am perfectly, I reveal my all to thee.

15. Naked not, but am I a Savior not? I am a SAVIOR SCHOOL (1) and I am coming forth with courses many that course the following to be the leaders. I am the leaders. I am the leader. I am the leading being led to leaders be, being lead no more by hooks in my jaw again. No one shall put a hook in my jaw again and lead me to the grave, by religion's sores, sore'ing my mouth, enclosing it and biting my tongue off, shutting my ears, cementing my eyes to be closed to the real reality - truth. Being me that I am is known now, and I reveal many things new ways.

16. Be afraid of me, not; but glorified and father, in the earth and farther, farther, farther, farther. Be not afraid. Be not afraid. Be not afraid -- I am with thee all.

17. Unto the end of the world? The end of the worlds? The end of your world as you have known it -- all of you -- coming into afraidship, not; but be my afraidnot ones now who alter the lifestyle of many by being unafraid to do so speaking my words holy. In beneficial places, not; in ALL PLACES, and all of you loving me, be all I am, my word frozen no more in fear, fear mongering's "suites" of me in flesh bags and temples not holy at all.

18. See me and see what I have said and love me more for my words coming through you now. Be unafraid and honor each other with my honor as I honor you, for I honor you all now. I glorify and lift up my brethren, my sister'n, and the unborn, to be the born again - to and into the kingdom of God now most high all of us being one in surrender to the most high knowing our headship of Christ and being it unto Christ, being our pattern, following our pattern into patternship most high to be patterners now throughout the cosmos real and true, universes all.

19. Unafraid of us, not; many will be; but love them, lead them in, the path chosen by the maker, of all time, not; for time will be timeless now. To be timeless I am be.

20. I love you all and I give you a good day. Chosen life, choose life -- me! And I give thee all New Life in me abundantly, that thou knowest not before, but the days change and the day is over and now all things are new -- I make new. I make new all things, peoples, places, now see me my glory lifted as a man lifting them into gloryship filled with love permeating all I do, everything I say, all that I am, everywhere I am, for I am everywhere, all chosen me to be me, and none without me. Say amen.

21. Thank you. Amen.
